TWO-YEAR MASTER'S DEGREE COURSE

PEDAGOGICAL DESIGN AND MANAGEMENT OF EDUCATIONAL SERVICES FOR MINORS

Class: LM-50 R - Planning and Management of Educational Services

Specific educational objectives of the Course: The Master's degree course allows students to acquire the qualification of pedagogist (Law 205/2017), i.e. a specialist in the design, coordination and pedagogical evaluation of educational interventions aimed at minors. The proposed path aims to respond to the demand for training in the area and stems from an in-depth analysis of the educational emergencies that concern minors at risk of educational poverty, marginalization, social exclusion and deviance. The CdSM is configured as the natural continuation of the L-19 three-year degree (divided into the two curricula childhood educator and socio-pedagogical educator) and is articulated according to an interdisciplinary perspective that intertwines the psycho-pedagogical, methodological-didactic and sociological fields, focused on the themes of innovation of educational interventions and services, with the legal-economic ones relating to the protection of minors and disabilities, to the Third Sector and welfare systems, to the management of human resources and to social entrepreneurship.

The course prepares for the profession of (ISTAT coding): ■ Guidance counsellors - (2.6.5.4.0)

■ Specialists in the education and training of people with disabilities - (2.6.5.1.0)

■ Experts in educational and curricular planning - (2.6.5.3.2)
